THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MennonITE CHURCH is an entity composed of churches in North and South America. It is a voluntary association of churches, and its purpose is to promote the Christian faith and to provide for the spiritual and material needs of its members. The church is organized into a hierarchy of governing bodies, including the General Conference, the Conference of Ministers, and the Local Churches. The General Conference is the highest governing body, and it is responsible for the overall direction and policy of the church. The Conference of Ministers is the second highest governing body, and it is responsible for the supervision and coordination of the local churches. The local churches are the basic units of the church, and they are responsible for the spiritual and material needs of their members. The church is a member of the World Council of Churches, and it is also a member of the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC). The MCC is a humanitarian organization that provides relief and development aid to people in need around the world. The church is committed to the principles of peace, non-violence, and social justice, and it is dedicated to the promotion of these principles in all of its activities.

PREFACE

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MENNONITE CHURCH is an entity composed of member congregations in North and South America. It is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas in the U.S.A. Churches have united to form a Conference of Mennonites in Canada and several district conferences in the United States based largely on geographical location.

The delegate body which meets triennially is elected by individual churches on the basis of one delegate per thirty members. At the triennium sessions delegates elect three officers: president, vice-president, and secretary. The delegate body also elects members to a general board, program commissions, a seminary board, and a division of administration. These bodies meet annually in what is referred to as a Council of Commissions. It is at these sessions that action programs are planned and the annual financial budget is adopted.

A subsidiary corporation, Church Extension Services, is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas and deals with specific areas of program work.

A number of institutions and organizations, such as Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission, Mennonite Central Committee, colleges, and hospitals bear a functional relationship to the conference through the commissions. These institutions recognized as "General Conference-related" are not a part of the corporate structure of the General Conference Mennonite Church. They have their own corporate structures as set up under the statutes of the states in which they are located.

China

The relaxation of tensions between the United States and China has provided opportunities for some Mennonites to join tours to China. To date, those tours have provided no clue to what happened to the Mennonite churches. However, there have been interviews with other Chinese church leaders who report that the church survives under the totalitarian regime—under what restrictions or conditions is not clear.

COM maintains an interest in China and provides support for the publication and distribution of the Bible in Chinese through the United Bible Societies.
